Black Magic

...with Studio Ceramico

Choosing tiles can be challenging. Getting it right ensures that your home will reflect your exquisite taste for years to come. Getting it wrong, however, can be a costly mistake.

CTM, South Africa's largest tile and décor store, knows exactly what you go through. So they've negotiated the exclusive rights to bring you Studio Ceramico, a specialist studio dedicated to tile design. Studio Ceramico's research and design team is constantly in touch with international tile trends – from the very latest fashions to more enduring and timeless mega-trends that will always be in vogue.

There are countless options to choose from. Each tile range is carefully co-ordinated and beautifully presented. Finding your favourite look becomes an effortless indulgence, even for the most discerning decorator. In fact, you feel quite the tile expert, as Studio Ceramico lets you explore with the confidence of knowing you'll choose a trend-setting tile, with all the trimmings to match. Enjoy expertise at the touch of your fingertips.

Every woman knows that there's nothing as chic, yet timeless as a little black dress. Similarly, black is one of the most stylish and dramatic solutions for contemporary interior design. Studio Ceramico's Black Finesse Range (seen here) offers an array of beautifully designed tiles with different textures, patterns and designs. With the core focus on the colour black, the collection is all about sophisticated lines and chic designs.

Studio Ceramico isn't just about buying a look. You're also investing in lasting, premium quality. Go and have some fun exploring Studio Ceramico at your nearest CTM. Or take a sneak preview at ctm.co.za. With Studio Ceramico, you'll simply love what you've done – for a long, long time to come.
